7:00 PM - Meeting was Called to Order by Council Chair Howard Stern.

Treasurer's Report – Terry Foley reported the account balance is $5,884.

7:02 PM - Police Report – Assistant Chief David Dickey presented the latest 28-day Ventura Police Crime Map – new reporting based on NIBRS statistics. There were 7 assault offenses; 9 property crimes; 26 society crimes for a total Group A crimes of 42 vs. 51 crimes last month. There were also few complaints reported during the 4th of July holiday in Pierpont however, the rest of the City did not fare too well as overall there were 12 citations for fireworks.

State Parks Update –Tyson Butzke reported the following:

- Recently lost 6 control staff so they have limited resources.
- The X Games are starting next weekend and they expect a much more manageable crowd than the recent Strawberry Festival. The Park will have a shuttle stop for parking.
- A new State Parks Manager, Dina Beldmar was recently appointed,

7:10 PM – Guest Speaker, Elena Walker, Parks & Recreation

Ms. Walker gave a presentation regarding Public Arts projects - both conservation and new projects slated in the pipeline. She focused on some of the proposed projects for Pierpont that she is working on with Dan Roundtree such as the garbage cans, restroom wall and end of Seaward wall art all at Lower Seaward Avenue. She presented a tentative timeline that showed hopefully starting at the end of September.

7:40PM - Committee Updates

STVR- Terry Foley had no update other than to report that the City' legal department is still aiming to present to the Council a new STVR ordinance by the end of 2023.

Beach- Kaycee Krieg reported that Beach Clean-Up event did happen although she will consider rescheduling the July clean up next year to occur the Saturday after July 4th. The next Beach- Clean Up is scheduled on August 5,

Website/PR- Steve Holanov did not have any update to report.

Seaward Beautification - Dan Roundtree reported that there are only a few businesses left to join in the Light up Lower Seaward campaign. There were over 100 new succulents planted in the median on Pierpont.

7:55 PM City Council Update – Joe Schroeder

The Mayor reported that a new City Manager has been selected and will be announced shortly. He also stated that the City learned from some mistakes of the Strawberry Festival and feels that they are better prepared for the X Games.

8:00 PM – Meeting was adjourned by Howard Stern
